THURSDAY, April 10, 1919

HERE AND THERE

Almost home-coming dates, August 13 to 16.

The first number of the Port Huron Herald is out.

Hiram Windsor and family, of Brown City, will move to Port Huron.

Plans are being made for the enlarging of the Hurley hospital in Almont.

The Crosswell board of education has placed tuition for non-resident pupils at $40 per year.

The Sugar factory at Crosswell has one of the biggest list of contracts ever held by the company.

A Boy Scout organization will be formed at Melvin with Horace Kaake, an army man as instructor.

Rev. J. S. Wood, pastor of the Menomonic church in Brown City for four years, now goes to Port Huron.

Rev. J. W. Wallace, for 22 years pastor of the Baptist church in Capac, died very suddenly on March 29th, 1919, aged 77 years.

Two of Emmett's early settlers were called by death just recently, Henry Green, aged about 90 years, and Thomas Ryan, another aged man.

Twenty-one Almont families have purchased two carloads of ice from the ice plant at Royal Oak and have filled an ice house for their use next summer.

The H. J. Heinz Co.'s salting station at Mayville has been purchased by Libby, McNeill & Libby, a Chicago concern and will be operated by them there and at Silverwood.

Marlette village council has provided a rest room for the use of the public, which fills a long needed want, and points toward splendid consideration on the part of the business men and the city dais.

Frank Jerny, a well-known Algona citizen, has entered the county poor house at Goodells, not because he has no means of subsistence, but on account of ill health and no one to care for him. He will pay his own expenses.

Capt. Henry Fish, oldest mariner of the Great Lakes, both in years and point of service, known and beloved by hundreds of people of his home town and all about the lake region, died in St. Clair last week at the age of 95 years. He was called St. Clair's Grand Old Man.

PROFIT BY THIS

Don't Waste Another Day

When you are worried by backache; By lameness and urinary disorders. Don't worry with an untried medicine.

Do as thousands of people are doing. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this Marlette resident's experience:

Mrs. Lou Sherman, W. Marlette, St. Marlette, Mich., says: "About fifteen years ago I was suffering with inflammation of the bladder and kidneys. I had been down in bed with this trouble. My kidneys acted irregularly and I felt sick all over. My head ached all the time and I never felt so wretched in all my life. Nothing did me any good until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They brought relief from the first and I soon improved in every way. I felt like a different person and have had but little trouble with my kidneys since."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Sherman had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
